2nd INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION for SHORT FILMS on:

Subtitles and international dialogue
Film subtitling as a means for cross-cultural communication

Sub-ti has long been committed to promoting the culture of the subtitling as an instrument fostering intercultural dialogue and awareness of innovative and diverse artistic expressions. Sub-ti provides subtitles for film festivals all over the world, always respecting the integrity and linguistic uniqueness of each film.

After the success of last year's first edition, Sub-ti is proud to be launching a new edition of this competition, which from now on will be an annual event. Sub-ti developed this initiative not only in order to further its mission, but also to offer an exceptional opportunity to young directors and film students. Indeed, the winning short film will be screened before selected features at the international festivals which Sub-ti is a partner of, starting from the next edition of Venice Days - Giornate degli Autori, a section of the Venice Film Festival. The competition is open to all directors, aspiring film-makers film students and media studies undergraduates of all nationalities.

To participate, just send the following
BY JUNE 15th 2010:

- A DVD containing one or more short films to be entered in the competition (the duration of each short should not exceed 35 seconds).
- Detailed CVs of all those who worked on the film.
- The contact details of at least one of the film-makers (date of birth, address, telephone number and email address).

All material should be sent to following address:
Sub-ti Ltd · 48 Albemarle Street
London W1S 4JP · United Kingdom

An international jury made up of directors, screenwriters and critics will assign the award to the short film which best illustrates the premise of the competition. SUB-TI will print the winning short onto film and it will then be officially presented in a press conference to take place in Rome, Italy in late July 2010.
